

Honors in the Major:

Special Education

Deaf Hard of Hearing; Learning and Behavior; Low Vision and Blindness

Students in the Honors Program can choose to pursue various designations to earn upon graduation, including Honors in the Major. By completing Honors in the Major, students will:

- engage in an enriched and extended learning experience;
- develop as scholars and gain an edge over their peers by choosing a rigorous preparation in their field of study;
- be recognized in the Commencement Book, transcript, and on the diploma.

Students earn this designation at graduation; requirements, including being in good standing with the Honors Program, are reviewed at the end of the final semester:

1. 3.3 cumulative GPA
2. 3.5 major GPA
3. Fulfill Honors Program participation requirements: 1 Honors Learning Experience per semester in the program, including the final semester (students are not required to complete an Honors Learning Experience when they are off-campus)
4. Complete 2 Honors Learning Experiences in SED courses with a grade of "B" or better, which may include:
 - a. Honors Section of an SED course
 - b. Honors Contract in an SED course
5. Complete an Honors Capstone Experience:
 - SED 299: Honors Independent Study (1 – 3 credit hours) with an SED faculty member
