

Honors Student Scholarly Travel Program

For support of travel to present research or engage in scholarship between July 1, 2011 and May 1, 2012.

The Honors Program has limited funding available for Honors students to provide partial support for undergraduate travel (1) to a professional conference to present their scholarly or creative work, or (2) to conduct essential research for a well-defined project. Applicants must be members in good standing of the Honors Program. Students may apply for reimbursement for trips completed after July 1, 2011. Future travel must be completed by May 1, 2012. The purpose of this program is to fund expenses not covered by any other means. Recipients will complete a brief report and form after their travel to receive funds.

- To apply:
- (1) Complete the following Application Cover Sheet (clear printing is acceptable)
 - (2) Attach a one-page (or less) description that explains your project and why it merits funding.
 - (3) Attach a budget (transportation, lodging, registration, meals).
 - (4) Attach a letter of endorsement from your ISU Faculty Mentor.

Name _____ UID _____

ULID _____ Phone _____

Local Address _____

Travel Date(s) _____

Destination _____

Name/Organization of Professional Meeting _____
(if applicable)

1. Purpose of Travel. Note: Be specific. If you're presenting, say so and provide the title of your talk. If you have some other professional role or if you're conducting research, provide a brief overview of the work you intend, and elaborate on the attached page.

2. Name and department of an ISU Faculty member who can comment on your travel project:

3. Amount requested: _____. Note: The Honors Program will follow University guidelines and processes in awarding funding and will only reimburse expenses not otherwise funded.

4. Do you have partial or matching funds from another source? _____. If yes, please list:

5. Verification

"The information above, in the attached statement, and in the budget is true and accurate."

Signed

date