Honors Mindset Seminar may be coming to a close, but your Honors career is just getting started!

Be a Scholar

→ One Honors Learning Experience is required each semester you are on campus.

→ If you’re not taking an Honors Section of a course, you can propose an Honors Contract. Forms are on the Honors website and are due by the 15th day of classes.

→ Investigate Honors Research opportunities and ways to collaborate with faculty in your major.

→ Look for ways to share the products of your Honors Learning Experiences. Consider presenting at the University Research Symposium.

Be a Leader

→ Descriptions of leadership opportunities within the Honors Program for the 2022 - 2023 academic year will be announced in the spring.

→ Details regarding the application process will be communicated via the Honors listserv and posted on the Honors Program website.

Be a Voice

→ Encourage your friends to consider the Honors Program and to apply in the spring.

→ Share ideas and suggestions with the Honors Program by emailing honors@ilstu.edu or stopping by the office.

Be an Explorer

→ Participate in a Study Abroad program.

→ Visit other states and countries through Honors Alternative Spring Break or Honors Study Abroad.

→ Explore the unique topics available through our innovative Honors Explorations.

Be a Fan

→ Follow us on social media. Look for us on Facebook under “Illinois State University Honors Program” and @HonorsISU on Twitter.

Be a Graduate

→ Review the requirements for Honors designations and aim to achieve these designations!
