THE NEST

Honors students can hang out and collaborate in The Nest, part of the upper-level of the Honors Program Building. The Nest is open 8 am - 4:30 pm, Monday — Friday.

What's Next?

Honors Mindset Seminar may be coming to a close, but your Honors career is just getting started!

BE A Scholar

- One Honors Learning Experience is required each semester you are on campus.
- If you're not taking an Honors Section of a course, you can propose an Honors Contract. Forms are on the Honors website and are due by the 15th day of classes.
- Investigate Honors Research opportunities and ways to collaborate with faculty in your major.
- Look for ways to share the products of your Honors Learning Experiences. Consider presenting at the University Research Symposium.

BE A Participant

- The Honors Program hosts a variety of events each semester. Join us to engage in discussion and community building.
- Consider being involved with the Senior Professionals Mentoring Program.
- Keep in touch with your Honors advisor.

BE A Leader

- Descriptions of leadership opportunities within the Honors Program for the 2022 - 2023 academic year will be announced in the spring.
- Details regarding the application process will be communicated via the Honors listserv and posted on the Honors Program website.

BE A Voice

- Encourage your friends to consider the Honors Program and to apply in the spring.
- Share ideas and suggestions with the Honors Program by emailing honors@ilstu.edu or stopping by the office.

BE AN Explorer

- Participate in a Study Abroad program.
- Visit other states and countries through Honors Alternative Spring Break or Honors Study Abroad.
- Explore the unique topics available through our innovative Honors Explorations.

BE A Fan

- Follow us on social media. Look for us on Facebook under "Illinois State University Honors Program" and @HonorsISU on Twitter.

BE A Graduate

- Review the requirements for Honors designations and aim to achieve these designations!
