Guidance for Letters of Recommendation
Themes of Advice

- Meaning and significance
- Growth and transformation as a student, scholar, person
- Future oriented
- Be specific: examples and evidence
- Cohesive, compelling, well-written narratives
- Balance of academic excellence and leadership achievements
Significant Courses

What intrigues, excites, or inspires you as a student?

- 4 courses from Illinois State
- 1 double-spaced page per course
- Briefly: when taken, requirement fulfilled
- Why was the course significant to your development as a student?
Significant Courses

• Clear and compelling rationale as to the significance of the courses identified
• Examples/evidence of your development as a student
• Make connections to:
  - Skills developed
  - Involvement
  - Career path
Activities and Organizations

Share the breadth and depth of your involvement.

- Up to 7 Activities/Organizations
- List that includes:
  - Brief description of the Activity/Organization
  - Dates and length of participation
  - Duties and/or responsibilities
  - Positions and/or offices held
  - Honors and/or awards received
Activities and Organizations

• Breadth and depth of experiences
• RSOs, volunteer experience, employment, family/social/community/civic involvement
• Are your roles and responsibilities clear and succinctly described?
• Leadership and membership

  ▪ How do you encourage others to lead?
Activities and Organizations

3 “Most Meaningful”

• 1 double spaced page per “Most Meaningful”
• Consider the impact you had and growth you experienced
• Examples of initiative
• “Transformative”
  ▪ How did you leave your mark?
  ▪ Personal/professional growth
Activities and Organizations

Covid-19 Response

Your description of your Activities and Organizations, including your discussion of the three most meaningful, may include how Covid-19 affected your involvement and may have altered your ability to pursue your past activities.
Academic Product

- Influential; not necessarily big
  - Sophomore or junior year
  - Showcase your abilities as a student/scholar
  - Substantial assignments
  - Not necessarily from a class
- 1 double-spaced page with a brief description and context
  - Class title, semester taken
  - Goals for the assignment
Academic Product Reflection

• 2 double-spaced pages
• Why are you proud of this product?
  ▪ Academic mindset
  ▪ Growth as a student/scholar
• What is the significance of the product?
  ▪ Skills developed
  ▪ Important outcomes
  ▪ Abilities as a student/scholar
Academic Product Reflection

- Self-Reflection
- What did you learn?
- How did you grow?
- Ability to find meaning
Consider Illinois State University’s core values.

1. In what ways has your undergraduate experience encompassed these values?
   • Limit your discussion to no more than three core values. Provide examples of how your experiences connect to these values.

2. How might your future goals include engaging with these values?
Essay

• 3 double-spaced pages
• Reflect on your experiences
• Consider future goals and achievements
• Express yourself in writing
Essay

• Well-written narrative
• Specific examples and supporting details
• Clear connection to no more than three core values
